

Will you become one of our 100 Angels for Hungate?

Hungate Medieval Art is currently seeking 100 Angels from the local area to give a donation of £100 in order to secure our future. We are reaching out to companies and individuals to give a commitment of just £100 to enable us to continue to put on a programme of exhibitions each year and support numerous local outreach programmes. For each donation we will be filling a square of our Angel, with a company logo or name, to create a unique piece of art which we will be exhibiting in the entrance to Hungate and on our website, as a testament to the support of the local community.

Hungate is a registered charity which exists to promote public engagement with the fine arts and crafts of the Middle Ages. We celebrate the medieval heritage of Norfolk and encourage its conservation and public accessibility. We promote high quality, thoughtful and constructive contemporary responses to medieval art and buildings, whether through contemporary art or in the practical adaptation and use of medieval buildings. We support and showcase the many hundreds of sites and locations where medieval art can be experienced in our county, including 660 Parish Churches.

Hungate receives no core funding and relies solely on donations. It costs over £1,000 a month to keep Hungate open to the public, which encompasses running costs for our beautiful medieval church, utility bills and rent. We are run entirely by volunteers and have no paid staff. Your support would enable us to keep our doors open for exhibitions and public events from March to November, and ensure public access remains free. Additionally your support would allow us to expand our successful programme of outreach events, to include family workshops, study days with local schools, concerts with local choirs and musicians, film screenings and a public lecture programme.
